

National Women's History Month 2018 Theme & Call for Nominations

- The National Women's History Month 2018 Theme is
NEVERTHELESS SHE PERSISTED:
Honoring Women Who Fight all Forms of Discrimination Against Women

Please follow the below nomination guidelines and criteria:

- Her work and life must exemplify the 2018 theme,
NEVERTHELESS SHE PERSISTED:
Honoring Women Who Fight all Forms of Discrimination Against Women
- Your nominee's contributions should be of national significance and should amount to more than a single act or accomplishment.
- We encourage nominations of women from diverse backgrounds.
- We welcome nominations of both living and deceased women.
- You may submit only one nomination.
- You may submit nominations by completing this form or by answering all questions in the body of an email.
- All nominations must be emailed to nwhpnominations@gmail.com by May 20, 2017
- Incomplete nominations or those that do not answer all questions will not be considered.
- Past NWHP Honorees will not be considered.

2018 Nomination Form

Name of Nominee _____

Birth/Death (if applicable) _____

Occupation or field of achievement _____

Cultural or ethnic identity _____

If she is alive, please include her contact information

Address _____

Phone Number _____

Email _____

In 2-3 sentences explain the nature of your nominee's work and accomplishments.

Do your nominee's accomplishments/contributions have a positive impact on the lives of women? (Limit your response to 2-3 sentences)
